Suicide Prevention Organizations

American Association of Suicidology (AAS) www.suicidology.org

AAS promotes research, public awareness programs, public education, and training for professionals and volunteers. It serves as a national clearinghouse for information on suicide, publishing and disseminating statistics and suicide prevention resources. AAS also hosts annual national conferences for professionals and survivors.

American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP) www.afsp.org

AFSP funds research and offers educational programs and resources for professionals, survivors of suicide loss, and the public, promotes and keeps track of policies and legislation related to suicide prevention. AFSP chapters provide connections to local resources and services addressing suicide prevention. The chapters also organize awareness events.

International Association for Suicide Prevention (IASP) www.iasp.info

IASP is an international suicide prevention membership organization dedicated to preventing suicidal behavior, alleviating its effects, and providing a forum for academics, mental health professionals, crisis workers, volunteers, and suicide survivors. IASP sponsors World Suicide Prevention Day, congresses, task forces, conferences, and awards for research in suicidology.

Jason Foundation www.jasonfoundation.com

The Jason Foundation is an educational organization dedicated to the awareness and prevention of youth suicide. It produces educational curricula and training programs for students, educators, youth workers, and parents to help them identify and assist at-risk youth.

Means Matter, Harvard School of Public Health www.hsph.harvard.edu/means-matter/

The mission of the Means Matter campaign is to increase the proportion of suicide prevention groups that promote activities that reduce a suicidal person's access to lethal means of suicide. The website has a wide variety of information to help families, clinicians, suicide prevention groups, local communities, and colleges and universities.

National Council for Suicide Prevention (NCSP) www.ncsp.org

NCSP is a group of leading national suicide prevention organizations that comes together to speak as a collective voice on selected issues and is dedicated to advancing suicide prevention through leadership and advocacy. NCSP philosophy is rooted in the belief that collaboration between like organizations will help pool resources and strengthen member organizations' ability to effect positive change in the field.

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (Lifeline) www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org

The Lifeline provides immediate assistance 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to individuals in suicidal crisis by connecting them to the nearest available suicide prevention and mental health service provider through a toll-free telephone number: 1-800-273-TALK (8255). The Lifeline also provides informational materials featuring the phone number, such as brochures, wallet cards, and posters.

Samaritans USA www.samaritansusa.org

Samaritans USA provides services to those at risk for suicide, provides support for those who have experienced a loss due to suicide, and educates caregivers and health providers. Crisis lines are the cornerstone of Samaritans USA's services. Samaritans USA also provides suicide prevention education to the public and survivor support groups.

Suicide Awareness Voices of Education (SAVE) www.save.org

SAVE's mission is to prevent suicide through public awareness and education, reduce prejudice, and serve as a resource for those touched by suicide. SAVE's prevention and education programs are designed to increase awareness and knowledge about brain illnesses and suicide, accessing community resources, and understanding and use of intervention skills to help prevent suicide.

Suicide Prevention Resource Center (SPRC) www.sprc.org

SPRC is a SAMHSA-funded, national center that helps strengthen the efforts of state, tribal, community, and campus suicide prevention organizations and coalitions and organizations that serve populations with high suicide rates. It provides technical assistance, training, a variety of resource materials, a current awareness newsletter (The Weekly SPARK), and a searchable online library. In partnership with AFSP, SPRC coproduces the BPR for Suicide Prevention. SPRC also provides organizational support for the National Action Alliance for Suicide Prevention.

The Jed Foundation www.jedfoundation.org

The Jed Foundation works to promote emotional health and prevent suicide among college and university students. The Jed Foundation's programs include: ULifeline, an online resource that gives students access to campus-specific resources and allows them to take an anonymous mental health screening; the Half of Us campaign with mtvU, which uses online, on-air, and on campus programming to encourage help-seeking; Love is Louder, a movement online and in communities to build connectedness and increase resiliency; and more.

The Link Counseling Center www.thelink.org

The Link provides services and support to those who have lost a loved one to suicide, including workshops, resource materials, telephone counseling, information, and referrals. The Link also offers trainings for survivors and professionals on creating and facilitating support groups for survivors.

Yellow Ribbon www.yellowribbon.org

Yellow Ribbon is the producer of the adult gatekeeper training Be a Link!, and the youth program Ask 4 Help! Its services include providing technical assistance to states and communities and support to survivors, including a list of survivor support groups across the United States
